

Fifth EBIM Doctoral Workshop on Economic Theory

November 18–19, 2010 at Bielefeld University, Germany

This international workshop, entirely organized by EBIM doctoral students, aims to provide Ph.D. students in theoretical economics with an opportunity to talk about new developments in their field and discuss their work in progress with other doctoral students. During the workshop, participants will give a presentation of their research followed by a discussion.

Papers with a quantitative focus in the following research areas are invited:

- Mathematical Finance
- Game Theory
- Mechanism Design
- General Equilibrium Theory
- Decision Theory
- Industrial Organization
- Social and Economic Networks
- Innovation Economics
- Dynamic Macroeconomics
- Computational Economics

Please submit a full research paper or an extended abstract. We welcome applications from Ph.D. students at any stage of their doctoral studies.

The workshop is generously sponsored by EBIM. Accommodation and travel expenses of the presenters will usually be covered. There is no participation fee.

Submission deadline: September 30, 2010
